

Cooking for Life

Build capacity for independent living

Cooking for Life is a course of entry-level NDIS cooking classes for people with disabilities.

It's about building capacity and equipping people for independent living.

Run by experienced and caring support workers, Cooking for Life is a carefully structured set of lessons including:

- Following a recipe (easy to follow, illustrated recipes provided)
- Creating budget-friendly, nutritious main meals, desserts and snacks

- Basic cooking principles—preparing ingredients etc
- Food safety—hygiene, handling and storage
- Safe handling of knives and other kitchen equipment

Cook for family, cook for friends!

And when you have completed the classes, you'll be able to invite family and friends to lunch or dinner!
